FOREIGN MINISTER URGES INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY TO IMPOSE ECONOMIC AND ARMS SANCTIONS ON MYANMAR

The foreign minister was addressing a seminar on the Rohingya issue. He said, “Bangladesh wants the international community to impose economic and arms sanctions on Myanmar to put an end to the conflict and restore peace.”

VISITING INDIAN PRESIDENT KOVIND INAUGURATES RENOVATED RAMNA KALI MANDIR

Indian President Sri Ram Nath Kovind has inaugurated the renovated building of Ramna Kali Mandir (temple) in Dhaka during his visit to Bangladesh. President Kovind performed the ‘puja’ at the temple and exchanged greetings with the guests, the temple committee members and the devotees. President M Abdul Hamid has called upon all to shun the path of violence and bring unity in the country.

BANGLADESH EMBASSY IN WASHINGTON DC PUBLISHES TRAVEL ADVISORY FOR VISITORS TO BANGLADESH

The Embassy of Bangladesh in Washington DC has published an updated travel advisory for the people planning to travel to Bangladesh. A travel advisory is a notice to people who are planning to visit a country that provides guidance on precautions to take while traveling. The advisory will help tourists to make informed decisions about their travel plans in Bangladesh.

GLOBAL PEACE

The US Secretary of State Antony Blinken and Bangladesh Foreign Minister Dr. AK Abdul Momen have agreed to strengthen bilateral engagement while celebrating the 50th anniversary of the establishment of formal diplomatic ties. As we look forward to that important milestone, I am pleased and proud of the progress the US-Bangladesh relationship made over the last 50 years.”

DEPARTMENT’S SENIOR OFFICIAL

The US Department of State’s Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary, Dean Thompson said, “in the coming year 2022, the USA and Bangladesh, which share a close relationship, will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Victory of Bangladesh on 16 December with due celebrations of Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, three million martyrs and two hundred thousand women dishonored during the Liberation War. The U.S. State Department’s Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary, Dean Thompson said, “in the coming year 2022, the USA and Bangladesh, which share a close relationship, will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Victory of Bangladesh on 16 December with due celebrations of Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, three million martyrs and two hundred thousand women dishonored during the Liberation War. The U.S. State Department’s Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary, Dean Thompson said, “in the coming year 2022, the USA and Bangladesh, which share a close relationship, will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Victory of Bangladesh on 16 December with due celebrations of Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, three million martyrs and two hundred thousand women dishonored during the Liberation War.

TRADE AND ECONOMIC TIES BETWEEN THE US AND BANGLADESH

The US-Bangladesh relationship has deepened, matured, and expanded in many areas of cooperation over the years. The US has been providing economic and development assistance to Bangladesh since the early 1970s. The relationship has been characterized by mutual respect, shared values, and a commitment to regional stability and prosperity. The US is Bangladesh’s largest bilateral donor and also its largest trading partner.

CHOTTAMOREVY

An Italian registered ship loaded with 20,000 containers went to different destinations from the port in a short time. Chattogram Port handles more than 92 million containers every year, which has increased by more than tripled. With this new service, export products can be taken to Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam, and some ports in China. The merchandise ship left Chottogram Port three days after unloading different types of cargo, and the containers were loaded into it. The ship carried the containers to Italy’s Civitavecchia Port, which is a major trade route for Bangladesh. The containers were unloaded at Chottogram Port recently. An Italian registered ship loaded with 20,000 containers went to different destinations from the port in a short time. Chattogram Port handles more than 92 million containers every year, which has increased by more than tripled. With this new service, export products can be taken to Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam, and some ports in China. The merchandise ship left Chottogram Port three days after unloading different types of cargo, and the containers were loaded into it. The ship carried the containers to Italy’s Civitavecchia Port, which is a major trade route for Bangladesh. The containers were unloaded at Chottogram Port recently. An Italian registered ship loaded with 20,000 containers went to different destinations from the port in a short time. Chattogram Port handles more than 92 million containers every year, which has increased by more than tripled. With this new service, export products can be taken to Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam, and some ports in China. The merchandise ship left Chottogram Port three days after unloading different types of cargo, and the containers were loaded into it. The ship carried the containers to Italy’s Civitavecchia Port, which is a major trade route for Bangladesh. The containers were unloaded at Chottogram Port recently. An Italian registered ship loaded with 20,000 containers went to different destinations from the port in a short time. Chattogram Port handles more than 92 million containers every year, which has increased by more than tripled. With this new service, export products can be taken to Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam, and some ports in China. The merchandise ship left Chottogram Port three days after unloading different types of cargo, and the containers were loaded into it. The ship carried the containers to Italy’s Civitavecchia Port, which is a major trade route for Bangladesh. The containers were unloaded at Chottogram Port recently. An Italian registered ship loaded with 20,000 containers went to different destinations from the port in a short time. Chattogram Port handles more than 92 million containers every year, which has increased by more than tripled. With this new service, export products can be taken to Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam, and some ports in China. The merchandise ship left Chottogram Port three days after unloading different types of cargo, and the containers were loaded into it. The ship carried the containers to Italy’s Civitavecchia Port, which is a major trade route for Bangladesh. The containers were unloaded at Chottogram Port recently.