Bangladesh Embassy hosts *Professionals in the City

“Resilience of our people is the national character of Bangladesh”—Deputy Chief of Mission Mr. Muhammad Abdul Muhit said this in an event on 28 September 2012 at Bangabandhu Auditorium jointly organized by the Embassy of Bangladesh and Professionals in the city, a Washington DC based organization for socializing and networking of professionals of different fields. More than Sixty professionals from greater Washington area working in diverse fields such as Information Technology, Law, Transportation, and Education participated in the event. Tracing back to the history of resilience of the country and its people to establish what is rightfully theirs, Mr. Muhit in his speech also emphasised that Bangladesh has a long tradition of upholding freedom, democracy and secularism. The speech was followed by an audio-visual presentation on Bangladesh’s natural beauty, its history & culture and the impressive lifestyle of the people.

An internationally acclaimed artist, Ms Antora Rahman from Bangladesh Diaspora in the greater Washington area put up a classical dance performance as a glimpse of our rich cultural tradition with roots deep into thousands of years in the history.

The event is a part of the Embassy’s public diplomacy and outreach program to project Bangladesh’s rich culture and tradition to wider audience in the USA. The participants were served with traditional Bangladeshi food and refreshments.
